FROM WASHINGTON.

The United States Consul, at Port Ma-on, Minorien Island, under date of Feb-nary 28th, informs the Department of late that the United States merchant has been officially informed that the Theyennes and Arrapahoes have agreed to go to the Arkansas for the purpose of signing a treaty of peace. These Indians were preparing for an attack on the stock and and property of the overland dispatch soupany when a courler from Maj. Wynsep strived to invite them to meet him for the above named object. The commissioner is in receipt of letters from Dunda, Nebraska, stating that all Indian tribes are now at home, and are preparing for spring operations.
